Licito Concurso ’10
A National Legal Writing Competition

India Law Journal is organizing Licito Concurso ’10, a National legal writing competition with the object to encourage creative thinking and to promote research and writing on various themes of contemporary law to enable students to apply their mind in terms of practicality in the legal profession.

Themes
1. Legal Education: Impact of Globalization on Legal Education in India
2. Arbitration: Present status of Indian law on Treatment of International Arbitration Agreements
3. Climate Change: Was Copenhagen more than the accord: The Indian Perspective
4. Competition Law: Competition issues affecting the Energy Sector in India
5. Legal Processing Outsourcing: Is the lack of a Regulatory Framework one of the challenges facing the LPO Industry in India?

Panelists
1. Prof. (Dr.) Ghanshyam Singh, Registrar, National Law University (NLU), Delhi
2. Mr. Ajay Thomas, Registrar, London Court of International Arbitration (India)
3. Prof. Bimal N. Patel, Director, Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar
4. Mr. G.R. Bhatia, Partner & Head of Competition Law Practice, Luthra & Luthra Law Offices
5. Mr. Hemant Batra, Vice President, SAARCLAW & Lead Partner, Kaden Boris Legal LLP

Last date for Registration: 31st March 2010
Registration Fee: Rs. 150
Last date for Submission: 31st May 2010

Prizes:
First - Rs. 5000
Second - Rs. 3000
Third - Rs. 2000

The best three articles will be published in forthcoming issues of India Law Journal and they will also receive a two year complimentary subscription of India Law Journal.

For further information visit: www.indialawjournal.com